FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENT

This presentation contains statements concerning the Company's future results and performance that are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on various assumptions and may not be accurate because of risks and uncertainties surrounding the assumptions. Factors listed below, as well as other factors, may cause actual results to differ significantly from these forward-looking statements. There is no guarantee that any of the events anticipated by these forward-looking statements will occur. If any of the events occur, there is no guarantee what effect they will have on Company operations or financial condition. The Company will not update these forward-looking statements after the date of the presentation.

Some forward-looking statements discuss the Company's plans, strategies and intentions. They use words such as "expects," "may," "will," "believes," "should," "approximately," "anticipates," "estimates," and "plans." In addition, these words may use the positive or negative or a variation of those terms.

This presentation contains forward-looking statements regarding the Company's expectations regarding the Company's potential to create value over time; export log realizations, domestic prices, Southern log price realizations, earnings from the disposition of non-strategic timberlands, and third quarter earnings in the Timberlands segment; sales volumes, sales realizations for various products, log costs, and third quarter earnings in the Wood Products segment; selling prices and sales volumes for pulp, productivity and annual maintenance expense, chemical and fiber costs, energy costs and freight expense, and third quarter earnings in the Cellulose Fibers segment; and home closings, selling prices and gross margins, selling expenses, and third quarter earnings in the Real Estate segment. Major risks, uncertainties and assumptions that affect the Company's businesses and may cause actual results to differ from these forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

- general economic conditions, including employment rates, housing starts, interest rate levels, availability of financing for home mortgages, strength of the U.S. dollar;
- market demand for the Company's products, which is related to the strength of the various business segments and economic conditions;
- performance of the Company's manufacturing operations, including maintenance requirements;
- raw material prices and energy and transportation costs;
- successful execution of internal performance plans including restructurings and cost reduction initiatives;
- level of competition from domestic and foreign producers;
- the effect of weather and the risk of loss from fires, floods, windstorms, hurricanes, pest infestation and other natural disasters;
- federal tax policies;
- the effect of forestry, land use, environmental and other governmental regulations;
- legal proceedings;
- the effect of timing of retirements and changes in the market price of our common stock on charges for share-based compensation;
- changes in accounting principles;
- performance of pension fund investments and derivatives; and
- the other factors described under "Risk Factors" in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K.

The Company also is a large exporter and is affected by changes in economic activity in Europe and Asia, particularly Japan and China. It also is affected by changes in currency exchange rates, particularly the relative value of the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar, Euro and Yen. Restrictions on international trade or tariffs imposed on imports also may affect the Company.

SEGMENT	COMMENTS
Timberlands	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Slightly lower export log realizations, and lower domestic prices for Western logs• Somewhat lower Southern log price realizations due to mix• Higher earnings from disposition of non-strategic timberlands• Expect 2012 Q3 earnings to be comparable to 2012 Q2
Wood Products	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Anticipate flat to slightly lower sales volumes• Significantly higher sales realizations for OSB. Sales realizations for lumber have not experienced the normal seasonal softening• Log costs projected to increase in Canada, remain flat in the South and decline in the West• Expect 2012 Q3 earnings to be higher than 2012 Q2
Cellulose Fibers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Weaker selling prices for pulp, offset by higher sales volumes• Improved productivity and lower planned annual maintenance expense• Reduced chemical, energy and fiber costs, and slightly higher freight expense• Expect 2012 Q3 earnings to be significantly higher than 2012 Q2
Real Estate	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Higher home closing volume due to seasonality and improved market conditions• Slightly lower average selling prices due to mix, and gross margins of approximately 20%• Increased selling expenses due to additional closing volume• Expect increased earnings from single-family homebuilding operations in 2012 Q3

PRIORITIES FOR CAPITAL ALLOCATION

- Returning cash to shareholders
- Improving capital structure
 - Strong liquidity and reducing interest expense
 - Managing retirement liabilities
- Investing in our businesses
 - Disciplined capital expenditures
 - Growth opportunities

DIVIDEND PAYOUT POLICY

- Targeting a dividend payout ratio of 75% of Funds Available for Distribution (FAD) over cycle
 - FAD defined as cash flow before debt repayment and dividends
 - Will consider repurchasing shares
- Current quarterly dividend of 15 cents per share, or 60 cents per share on annualized basis
 - 2012 dividend payout ratio will likely exceed 75% of FAD, given current outlook

Committed to a Sustainable Dividend
